A message from Gill

"I just want to say thanks to the church for the very generous leaving gift. It was a lovely surprise, so far we've bought some new lighting for our living room, which looks very nice.

My new job is going really well and it feels like a good fit. My colleagues all seem lovely and there's a genuinely kind and loving atmosphere throughout the hospice. It will take me some time to get to grips with the patient database, but it's a real privilege to be able to sit and talk to patients and pray with them as they transition to the next life.

I'm missing everyone at GBC but enjoying having weekends off."
